

Landlord Privacy Notice

Acorn Properties (Jesmond) Ltd is committed to protecting and processing your personal data in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulations and the Data Protection Act 2018 (the legislation).

The General Data Protection Regulations are to safeguard your personally identifiable information or personal data. This privacy notice will be regularly reviewed and updated.

The what, who and why of Data collection

You will find attached a handy, easy to read, personalised GDPR infographic guide for Acorn Properties. This has been especially designed to allow you to see at glance what data we need to collect, who is responsible for it and why we need it.

Where the provision of data is a statutory, a contractual requirement or a requirement necessary to enter into a contract, a refusal to provide the data may mean that we are unable to provide you with our service.

To ensure that we provide you with the best service possible we will need to collect and retain certain personal data. Again, this information is contained in the attached GDPR infographic for you. Just so you know, at times we may source data from 3rd parties or via third parties e.g. Land Registry or local authority licensing schemes.

Lawful basis of processing

Your personal data will be used for the activities listed in the attached infographic. There are 6 lawful basis of processing your data including consent, a legitimate interest, contract fulfilment, a legal obligation and a vital interest. A legitimate interest is when we have a business or commercial reason to process your personal data which needs to be balanced with your interests i.e. what is right and best for you.

Where we state that we have a legitimate interest, the fact that we have a legitimate interest and what that legitimate interest is, this is a means for us to keep in touch with you during the tenancy; to contact you when we need your consent.

Online identifiers, IP addresses and cookie identifiers

Where you visit our website we may collect information about your computer, including where available your IP address, operating system and browser type, for system administration and to report aggregate information to our advertisers. This is statistical data about our users' browsing actions and patterns.

We may obtain information by using a cookie file which is stored on the hard drive of your computer. Cookies contain information that is transferred to your computer's hard drive. They help us to improve our site and to deliver a better and more personalised service. They enable us:

- To estimate our audience size and usage pattern.
- To store information about your preferences, and so allow us to customise our site according to your individual interests.
- To speed up your searches.
- To recognise you when you return to our site.

You may refuse to accept cookies by activating the setting on your browser which allows you to refuse the setting of cookies. However, if you select this setting you may be unable to access certain parts of our site. Unless you have adjusted your browser setting so that it will refuse cookies, our system will issue cookies when you log on to our site. You can find more information about cookies at www.allaboutcookies.org

This policy only applies to our site. If you leave our site via a link or otherwise, you will be subject to the privacy policy of that website provider. We have no control over that privacy policy or the terms of the website and you should check their privacy policy before continuing to access the site.

Who will my data be shared with?

It will be necessary for us to process or share all or some of your personal data with a range of individuals, businesses and organisations you will find the types of organisations and agencies on the attached personalised GDPR infographic.

How is my data stored?

Your personal data is stored in the way described on the attached GDPR infographic and the data is always stored within the European Union or outside of the European Union but with an organisation operating under the General Data Protection Regulations.

How long do you keep my data?

We will retain some elements of your personal data for up to the time identified on the attached GDPR infographic after we cease to be your agent. What information can be anonymized will be when no longer required for either contractual fulfilment or a legitimate interest. If the lawful basis for processing your data was consent then you may withdraw consent at any time and we provide an opt out option on every marketing communication for this purpose.

Your rights

You have a right of access to check your personal data to verify the lawful basis of processing. We are obliged to respond to an access request within 30 days and may not charge a fee, unless the request is unfounded, excessive or repetitive. If a fee is charged it is to be a reasonable fee based upon the administrative cost of providing the information.

You have a right to rectification if the data we hold is either inaccurate or incomplete. If your data has been disclosed to third parties then we must inform them of the rectification, where possible.

You have a right to erasure of your data when consent is our basis of processing (the right to be forgotten). You may request that your personal data be erased, for example, where there is no compelling reason for its continued processing or where you withdraw consent. We will comply with your request unless we have another basis of processing justifying our retaining the data (for example a legal requirement or the defence of a legal claim).

You have some rights to ask us to restrict processing i.e. to block or suppress processing where, for example, the data may be incorrect and whilst the accuracy is verified. We are permitted to store the data.

Your right to object

You do have a right to object to further processing of your personal data. We may be required to stop processing unless there is some other legitimate basis of processing such as a legitimate interest (i.e. HMRC) or a requirement for the exercise or defence of a legal claim.

Withdrawal of consent

Where the lawful basis for processing is your consent, you may withdraw consent at any time by pressing the “Unsubscribe button on your e-mail or writing to; GDPR Dept, Acorn Properties (Jesmond) Ltd 59 St Georges Tce, Jesmond, Newcastle upon Tyne, NE2 2SX or emailing: - GDPR@acornproperties.co.uk

How to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority
